Newly Built Methodist Church Dedicated

The newly built Methodist Episcopal church in this village was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies Sunday. A pow-erful sermon and appeal for pledges by Bishop John W. Hamilton of Boston resulted in the practical wiping out of the debt upon the building. Other ministers present were Revs. E. W. Sharp of Brattleboro, Robert Heseltine of Chelsea, E. L. M. Barnes of South Royalton, W. N. Roberts of Williamstown and A. Atwood, the present pastor of the local church, who has bestowed much personal labor upon the building. The cost of the neat and commodious strucburned last January with an insurance spring, but developed only an apple. of $2,000. Bishop Hamilton went from here to a rededication at Northfield.
